 Re: “Repurposing Demolished Sites/ Reinvesting in Neighboring Properties” Training Sessions

Notice: BEP-14-29

IHCDA is pleased to announce a second series of free workshops entitled “Repurposing Demolished Sites/ Reinvesting in Neighboring Properties.” The workshops are designed to provide valuable information for Blight Elimination Program (“BEP”) recipients and others working in neighborhood and community redevelopment. The workshops will focus on systematic neighborhood reinvestment strategies. The sessions will examine existing redevelopment tools and how they may be used in concert to achieve comprehensive redevelopment. These workshops are designed to complement the first series offered in April of 2014. The PowerPoint presentation and other resources from the first series of workshops are available at www.877gethope.org/blight.

BEP recipients, government officials and redevelopment professionals may wish to attend. The general public is also invited. These workshops are provided at no cost. Those that wish to attend should email Rayanna A. Binder at rbinder@ihcda.in.gov.
